Possibility of a Luminous Display Like the Northern Lights-Wireless Telegraphy May be Affected by Shower of Charged Particles-There is No Cause for Alarm or Fear-Comet Increasing in Brilliancy.

Boston, May 15.—Agreeing that no the magnitude to be 4.41, an increase harmful effect is to be experienced on in parent size of 2.65 degrees. next Wednesday from the passage of the earth through the tail of Halley's comet, New England astronomers appear not to concur as to the possibility of a luminous display similar to norther lights.

May Be Darkening of the Atmosphere Prof. David P. Todd of Amherst college thinks the aurora effect probable; Prof. Robert W. Willson of the Harvard college observatory declared today that there may be a darkening of the atmosphere, while Prof. Edward C. Pickering, head of the Harvard observatory, said: "I doubt if there will be any effect at all."

of the atmosphere, while Prof. Edward C. Pickering, head of the Harvard observatory, said: "I doubt if there will be any effect at all."

No Cause for Fear or Alarm.

Professor Willson said further that there may be a shower of charged particles very small but numerous, which may affect wireless telegraphy. There is no cause for alarm or fear. Cyanogen exists only near the comet's head and the tail is a good vacuum. Prosser Todd declares that there will be no more sensation than that candle on a person's hand. There is an equal amount of cyanogen gas radiated from each, proportionately, he says.

Luminous Display Professor.

What Washington Scientists Say.

Among the scientists there is some differences are minor. Professor Hall of the naval observatory would not be supprised if there was a shower of metebrites. He advanced his theory with the same calmness that would prophecy a shower of rain.

Others, and they appear in the matrix the passing of the comet. Edwin F. Naulty of New York, who has been at the observatory, making telescopic and spectroscopic observations of the visitor, contends that such a shower as Professor Hall deems possible cannot occur.

With fine weather for their annual outing, the Fifth company, C. A. C., under Captain Tarbox, spent Saturday under Captain Tarbox, spent Saturday at the Norwich range in rifle practice. The shelter halves were taken, but there was no time in which to practice pitching them, as the rifle practice kept them busy. The result was that 26 members of the company have qualified as marksmen, which is a gratifying number thus early.

Gathering at the armory at 6.30 o'clock the company, numbering 44, marched to Franklin square in time for the Norwich-Westerly car at 7.30, which left them at the range. The range was in fine shape, and during the day a number of visitors were there watching the shooting. MINNESOTA TOWN DOOMED BY FOREST FIRES,

Women and Children in Churches Praying, Men Fighting Flames. Demidji, Minn. May 25.—Women and children tonight are in the churches praying, hundreds of men are fighting the fires and two companies of state militia are hastening here from Crook-von and Duluth to fight the flames that are moving toward the town. The wall of fire gtarted early this morning about four miles south of the city, and late tonight had eaten its way through the dried forests and withered bushes to a point within 11-2 miles of the town. More than a thousand men are out fighting the impending danger. The militianen are coming under or-ders from Governor Eberhardt, who was appealed to this morning. A dense pall of smoke hangs over the town and breathing in the houses and churches is difficult. Unless there is rain soon or the wind changes, the town is doomed. MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR RUTH WHEELER. Held in the Ascension Memoria Church, New York. four burned bodies in a room on the top floor. The victime were Peter Larnico, an Italian; his wife, Rosa, and their two daughters, 12 and 8 years old.

In the excitement occasioned by the fire tenants forgot that the top floor was occupied and left the Larnicos hemmed in by flame and smoke. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is thought to have been set by an internet. torney, who conducted the prosecution of Wolter. In dying to save her honor Mr. Moss said, Buth Wheeler accomplished more than a hundred sermons Members of Ruth's Sunday school class presented to the church a memo-rial alms basin to be used in the Sun day school.
